NCO Soloists

Friday May 5 at 7.30pm
St Elphin's Church,
Warrington WA1 2TL

Described as being 'simply world-class' by Opera Magazine, the NCO has established a reputation as one of the leading chamber orchestras in the country. A feature in every NCO season is the regular appearance of the principal players as the NCO Soloists. In this concert, Nicholas Ward, the orchestra's Artistic Director, presents a performance of the two composers whose works inhabit the very centre of the string quartet repertoire, Haydn and Beethoven, before taking us through the ever-popular exploration of African-American music that is Dvorak's 'American'. Enjoy some refreshments in the interval and the chance to meet the musicians during an evening that promises to be the perfect way to welcome back the longer, sunnier days.
