Harvest Time

When I was young, single and working, most people had just three weeks annual leave. I liked to take a week in mid-May, another in mid-September and keep the third week for odd days as required. Fifty years ago the weather patterns seemed to be more stable and in mid-May and mid-September we always seemed to be blessed with fine weather. September was my favourite time because everywhere seemed to be properly warmed up and the schools were open so places were quieter, too. I still like to take a holiday in September for the same reasons but also because September is a time to take stock of what has gone before during the year and also a time of preparation as we begin our count-down to Christmas. Quite often it is the last chance for a little fling before the autumn and winter months arrive with shorter days and poor weather.

When you think about it, our lives are very much like the seasons or the year. As children we sow the seeds of our future and then as young adults we make the best we can of life before we come to the harvest time when we can retire and look back on what we have achieved and, hopefully, enjoy the fruits of our labour before we reach those winter years when it all comes to a close.

Throughout our lives God watches over us, ready to help us through the various seasons when we need help. He won't interfere but whenever we call upon him he is ready for us. As we make our way through the seasons of life in humility and penitence, we can always rely on him. Whatever circumstances confront us we can go forward in faith knowing that, as Julian of Norwich would have said, all will be well. Our preparation for the winter of our lives will prove fruitful with God's help. With our faith to sustain us, we can make our way through all the seasons of life wrapped in the warm love of God.

Confirmation 2018

Our Confirmation Service this year is on Sunday 18th November at the 10.30am Eucharist. The new Bishop of Warrington, the Right Reverend Beverley Mason will preside and all are welcome.

If you are considering being confirmed please complete one of the yellow application forms to be found at the back of church and return it to Revd Stewart as soon as possible.

New Hangings for Pulpit

We have recently purchased new hangings for the pulpit and bookmarks for the lectern in each of the 4 liturgical colours.

It was done with the consent of Derek Cameron's daughter, Jan from part of the legacy left by Derek in his will. Jan will be present when they are dedicated at the 10.30am Eucharist on Sunday 23rd September.

Harvest, Sunday 30th September

Services will be at the usual times. Please note that the 10.30am Eucharist will be an All Age Service.

We will be decorating the church on Saturday 29th September. Gifts of fruit and other produce are required and can be brought to the Church on the Saturday morning.

On Monday 1st October, we hope to distribute harvest parcels to the sick and housebound. Helpers and transport are needed to take out the parcels from 1.30pm. Produce will also be donated to the Foodbank. Thank you.

Pause for Thought...with Norma Fox

I have set the Lord always before me. Because He is my right hand, I shall not be shaken.
Psalm 16 v 8

Why would I want to write about 'Growing Old? Maybe it's because I find myself galloping on in years, or maybe it's that I see life in a different way. Growing old is a factor of life we must all travel towards providing our health holds fast, but we needn't be miserable as some.

They call it 'going down hill' when they reach a certain age and speak with mournful accents when relating their daily deeds. They sigh when talking of the 'good old days' as if the future wasn't bright with immortality!

But I don't see life that way, oh no! it's not 'going down' its climbing higher and higher until we see the kingdom we hope for, for if the natural eye grows dim, it is only dim to the earth, the eye of faith grows keener seeking to live closer to Christ.

When the farmer views his fields at harvest, when the corn is fully ripe and he sees a rich abundance, why would he want to event think of it back in its green beginnings? Nor would we in old age with a life time founded in the truth and love of God what to again be encircled with those inexperienced locks of youth?

For though in truth, the outward part of us weakens the inward part is renewed by grace from day to day. Those who are planted in the Lord, unshaken at their roots, even in old age shall continue to flourish bringing the light of God's love to all around.

It's not the years that make us old, our spirit maybe young, though for three score years and ten the whees of life have run, God has Himself recorded in His glorious word of truth, that they who wait upon the Lord, shall soon 'renew their youth'. And so , when the eyes grow dim and weak our eyes of faith grow strong, and when our ears now dull with age clearly we wil hear the Spirit's voice guiding us ever upwards to our heavenly home then shall we know the eternal joy – of NEVER growing old!

*Lord for the years
Your love has kept and guided,
Urged and inspired us,
Cheered us on our way,
Sought us and saved us,
Pardoned and provided;
Lord of the years,
We bring our thanks today*

Hymn from 'Old & New'

Mothers' Union – who are we and what do we do?

We are a movement of over four million Christians in 84 countries worldwide. Mothers' Union is unique because our members work as volunteers in local communities, putting their faith into action by acts great and small, giving individuals in need a helping hand and enabling communities (of all faiths and none) to have the confidence and skills to transform their lives in a sustainable way. The movement was started in 1876 by Mary Sumner to support mothers as they brought up their children as Christians.

Literacy and Financial Education Programme

Beginning in 2000 our Literacy and Financial Education Programme (LFEP) was designed to give a holistic approach to empowering some of the most marginalised communities in the world whilst meeting the Millennium Development Goals. The programme uses participatory methods to enable communities to acquire basic literacy and numeracy skills whilst discussing and planning action on their daily issues and challenges. In Burundi and Sudan/South Sudan Mothers' Union members have brought literacy learning to over 20,000 women and men in just over a decade. Thanks to generous funding from Comic Relief and a strong working relationship with Five Talents, our LFEP groups are stabilising family and community life.

All literacy circles and savings groups are open to everyone, crossing the boundaries of religion, age, gender or tribe, enabling community unity. Our programme has been especially effective in reaching those who are the most marginalised in society including groups previously discriminated against such as the Twa pygmy tribes in Burundi and displaced communities in Ethiopia, Sudan and South Sudan.

These groups enable communities to share so much more than just basic educational skills. The programme specifically focuses on building knowledge and skills in business development and community savings group formation for its members. As a result, women are now gaining financial independence, have more autonomy to manage their lives and are participating in household decision-making as well as community politics and leadership. One of the huge achievements we have seen is that as women are given education and value through the groups, attitudes towards them gradually change. Both genders discuss together the positive contributions of women, and realise how much more women can do than raise a family and run a home. Contributing to the family income as a result of learning has seen many women enjoy greater equality in their married relationship.

We pray for Mothers' Union members across the world as they move forward with initiatives to enrich the lives of women in their countries. We pray that many will benefit from those opportunities and communities will flourish. Good teacher, help us to learn about you and your journey here on earth, so we can bear witness to your love and encourage future generations to fully understand how truly wonderful you are.

Our next branch meeting is Wednesday 12th September 7.30pm in St Elphin's Community centre when Sharon Collins (Lay reader) will be telling us about her journey to ministry. All are welcome to join us for this meeting.

In my book you are a miracle worker, as I almost thought I had to go under the "knife" which I wanted to avoid like the plague and you helped me achieve this, thank you! It is a very good feeling to be pain free!
